FRATERNAL MEETINGS INJUNCTION SUIT AGAINST COUNTY TREASURER TRENT

To Prevent the Payment of a Blanket Warrant Ordered by the Board of Supervisors for Koolaupoko Road Work.

norning, the Board of Supervisors of of the treasurer making an effort to the County of Oahu, at its meeting on Wednesday evening, voted that a warrant be issued to Andrew Adams, chairman of the Koolaupoko road board, for the sum of $141. This action was taken contrary to Treasurer Trent's opinion, communicated to the meeting, that the persons who had performed the work represented by the Meets every second and fourth requisition of Mr. Adams should be

It is the same old fight against blanket warrants which Mr. Trent started at the outset of county government and on which a Supreme Court decision is proposed to be sought under an agreed submission of facts, with the pay of two employes of the electric light station as a basis of contention. The Koolaupoko matter is to be tested by an injunction suit in the Circuit Court, and possibly may reach a determination in the Supreme Court before the other matter.

Attorney McClanahan, as a citizen, accommodates Mr. Trent with the testing suit now instituted. Although the summons is returnable ten days after sooner. Probably the treasurer will not be the actual respondent in the trial, but the Board of Supervisors as the pear ten days after service to answer Visiting brothers cordially invited to party ordering the action sought to be the complaint.

As reported in the Advertiser next prevented. Otherwise it will be a case show cause why he should do what it is his solemn conviction he should Judge Robinson has signed a restraining order, on the petition of Edward B. McClanahan, against Richard H. Trent, treasurer of the County of Oahu, enjoining the respondent, until hearing and decision on an order to show cause, "from disbursing or paying out county moneys in the sum of $141.00 or any other sum, in payment of county warrant No. 1380 issued in favor of Andrew Adams."

In his bill of complaint the petitioner sets forth that he is a resident taxpayer of the City of Honolulu, County of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii. He says that respondent as treasurer is about to have presented to him a warrant dated Sept. 8, 1905, and issued by the county auditor in favor of Andrew Adams, for the sum of $141 and bearing the number 1380.

"That said warrant," the complaint proceeds, "has been examined, allowed and ordered paid by the Board of Supervisors of the said County of Oahu, but that said Andrew Adams, the person in whose favor said warrant is issued and ordered paid, is not entitled thereto, in payment of any claim or claims, demand or demands. due to him from or chargeable against the said County of Oahu, and said service, time may be waived by the warrant so issued is unauthorized by respondent to bring the hearing on law and its issuance to said Andrew Adams has been and is unlawful."

Treasurer Trent is summoned to ap-

FORECLOSURE SUIT

George W. Macfarlane has brought suit to foreclose mortgage against The Waikiki Seaside Hotel Co., Ltd. He sues as assignee of a mortgage given by the late E. C. Macfarlane to the late S. C. Allen on August 30, 1898, for $9000, the assignment having been made by the trustees under the will of S. C. Allen to the petitioner on April 23, 1904.

The executors of the will of E. C. Meets every 2nd and 4th Monday, at Macfarlane on August 12, 1902, assigned the leasehold interest in the premises involved to The Walkiki Seaside Hotel Co., Ltd., on condition that the executors and the hotel corporation have made default in payment of principal and interest of the mortgage; also, on information and belief, that month, at 7:30 o'clock, in Masonic the company is indebted for rent to the Bishop estate in the sum of $1632, and unless the same be paid without delay the petitioner will be compelled to pay it, otherwise his security will be destroyed. The usual payers for foreclosure, sale and judgment for any deficiency are made. J. Alfred Magoon is attorney for petitioner. Service of summons has been made on H. R. Macfarlane, president, and Wm. Lishman, treasurer, of the respondent company. Return of summons has been made SUIT TO ENJOIN in an assumpsit suit brought by Henry May & Co., Ltd., against The Waikiki Seaside Co., Ltd., for $1216.41 on account of merchandise. It was served on the president of the company and on the following named guests of the hotel as garnishees: Mrs. J. N. S. Williams, Mrs. R. W. Filler, Ed. Giffard, John Effinger, E. A. Johnson, Stanley Stephenson, M. Guessefeldt, E. T. Winant and Frank Vida.

Warm, Debilitating Weather

Many people, after a long spell of oppressive heat, suffer from lassitude, loss of spirits, and a general "run down" feeling.

They need a course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a medicine which has revived and restored to active life and health thousands of such sufferers. A lady who recently returned to England from South Africa writes concerning this "wonderful medicine": "While in Cape Town the past summer I suffered greatly from the long-continued heat. I was completely worn out; my blood seemed to become as thin as water, and I lost all energy and interest in life. My friends

SCHAFFER ANYTHING

Ida Schaffer has brought a divorce extending over several years, together with failure to provide, is alleged. Mention is made in the libel of the rewith the chain gang in public places. Judgment by default was given by Schaffer-but this is not in the libel -stole a telescope basket from the Honolulu railway station. It belonged Kekipi and others for $1775.25 against to Chief Justice Frear and contained papers in cases which he was taking latter would pay the principal and in- to Haleiwa to consider while enjoying terest of the Allen mortgage aforesaid. I the ocean air at that resort. When It is alleged that E. C. Macfarlane, his | Schaffer found that the papers were not merchantable, he left the basket containing them at the house of an acquaintance. The papers were not recovered by the Chief Justice for several days.

Henry Hogan is attorney for the libellant. The parties were regularly married about three years and there are three children from the union. In the record of cruelties alleged by the wife are many instances of the hushours, to throw things at her and terrify herself and the children with abusive and threatening language.

USE OF A NAME

An injunction suit to prevent the use of a personal name by the one using a suit has just been brought. G. W. R. King and Anna Louise King, his wife, are the complainants, and Amy L. Clark, otherwise called Mrs. A. L King, is the respondent.

Prior to December 15, 1891, the complainant G. W. R. King and the respondent were husband and wife, the declaration sets forth. At that date the respondent brought a divorce suit against G. W. R. King, and on January 9, 1892, he having refused to an. To make room for new stock just orswer an amended libel, the Supreme Court granted a decree of divorce to April 27, 1892, the respondent, then known as A. L. King, was married to per 100 at one Alan W. Clark. February 1, 1894, Amy L. Clark, the present respondent, filed a libel for divorce against Alan W. Clark, and March 1, 1894, Judge Cooper granted a decree. Again, neither in the pleadings nor in the decree was any reference made to the name thereafter to be borne by the said Amy L. Clark.

From the date of the last-mentioned divorce, the complainants are informed and believe, the true name of the respondent has been and now is Amy L. Clark or Mrs. A. L. Clark, but they allege that, without legal right or authority, and solely for the purpose of vexing, harassing and annoying the complainants, she assumed and uses the name of Mrs. A. L. King. She has had that name inserted in the directory and has constantly given it at the postoffice

Owing to such assumption of name frequent and great annoyance, trouble, confusion and vexation have been and are now caused and produced to the complainants and especially to the said complainant. Anna Louise King." Letters, notes and invitations intended for the latter are alleged to have been frequently taken from the Honolulu postoffice by respondent, ultimatey to be delivered to Mrs. Anna Louise King after having been "opened by mistake" by respondent.

HOLLISTER DRUG CO., AGENTS. It is alleged that the use of the name in question is malicious on the part of respondent and contrary to repeated requests on the part of complainants that she desist from such assumption and use of the name

Complainants pray that it be decreed that after a reasonable time to be determined by the court, she be required to notify her correspondents that she has ceased to assume or use the name of Mrs. A. L. King or any nodification thereof.

Henry E. Highton is attorney for complainants.

PLEADS STATUTORY PERIOD.

Koolau Maile has filed an answer to the complaint in this case, expressing a belief that a note and mortgage for $1400 was executed by her under the name of Koolau to S. C. Allen, but, for lack of definite information, denying that J. W. Kaikainahaole, her deceased former husband, and herself, and S. Kaiu and his wife, or any or either of them executed or acknowledged or delivered to Samuel C. Allen the mortgage described in the complaint. She says she is likewise ignorant of the alleged assignment of mortgage to complainant.

Her main plea is that no demand was made upon her, as administratrix of the estate of her late husband, within the statutory period, for payment of the alleged debt. Therefore, by the laches of complainant and those under whom she claims, it has been rendered impossible, under the law, for this defendant to pay and discharge the alleged promissory note and mortgage. Further, she submits that the action ought not to proceed to a final determination until the personal representatives of J. W. Kaikainahaole and S. Kaiu respectively shall have been joined as parties defendant. "Wherefore this defendant prays that said action may be abated, until all and singular the persons necessary and proper to a complete adjudication of the equities herein shall have been brought before the court as parties hereto; or, in the alternative, that saidbill of complaint be dismissed." Clarence W. Ashford was appointed by Judge Robinson guardian ad litem for the minor children of Koolau Maile in the foreclosure suit against the latter brought by Laura A. Coney.

BECEIVEB IN PARTNERSHIP SUIT

On motion of A. S. Humphreys for suit against Albert Schaffer. Cruelty complainants, Judge Robinson has made a decretal order appointing W. C. Shields as receiver in the partnership suit of Cheong Ah Chow vs. Ching spondent's serving a term in prison for Nam Seu, in place of T. Ah Tong, unstealing, it having caused his wife der a bond of $5000. The receiver's great mortification to see him working bond is filed, E. H. Wodehouse being

> Judge De Bolt, on motion of W. C. Achi for plaintiffs, in favor of George Kamalo Sugar Co. A confession of judgment is filed in the assumpsit suit of City Mill Co.,

Ltd., vs. Mary K. Dwyer. PROBATE MATTERS. Judge Robinson appointed Alice Kapuaa administratrix of the estate of Kapuaa, deceased, under $50 bond. J J. Dunne in presenting the petition said its purpose was principally at the instigation of Schaefer & Co., to straighten out certain plantation interests on the island of Hawali.

L. Schweitzer was appointed by Judge Robinson guardian of the estate of Samuel Sachs Jr., under a bond band's coming home drunk at all of $700, and filed an inventory showing the estate to be valued at $655,29. In the Campbell will case it is stipulated that Alice K. Macfarlane may have ten days more in which to plead. Lyle A. Dickey was appointed by Judge Robinson administrator with the will annexed of the estate of S. T. Alexander, late of Alameda county, Cal., who died at Victoria Falls, South Africa, on September 10, 1904. Decedent left real estate in this Territory valued at $7000, consisting of land on Nowewehi street, Honolulu. He disposed of it is something new in Hawaii. Such a large fortune by will, which was probated in California.
